Dr. Cynthia Jackson Small is an award-winning author, training consultant, and advocate for young children and families. Cynthia currently serves as a statewide trainer for Practical Parent Education and provides keynotes and presentations at local, state and national conferences. She has previously served as the director of Early Childhood Programs with ChildCareGroup and has worked in the Dallas Independent School District as an elementary classroom teacher, campus administrator and parent involvement director. Dr. Small has been featured as a guest speaker on the WFAA Family First Project in Dallas and has written articles for Practical Parent Education, Dallas Child Magazine, and the National Association of Elementary School Principals. Cynthia is currently a Master Trainer with the Texas Early Childhood Professional Development System and statewide Training Registry.

Dr. Small has also been a child development adjunct professor at Brookhaven College and has presented workshops for early childhood educators at the University of North Texas, University of Arkansas, and Texas A & M University. She has shared interactive presentations at numerous conferences including the National Head Start Conference, Healthy Choices Conference, Learning Forward, and National Association for the Education of Young Children. As a published author, Dr. Small has written educational articles and inspirational books including Meet the Teacher with Class, Speaking Out, and Pocketbook Praise.

Career/Educational and Certification Highlights:

- Doctor of Ministry in Christian Education, Jacksonville Theological Seminary, Jacksonville, Florida

- Master of Arts Degree in Elementary Education, Texas A & M University, Commerce, Texas

- Bachelor of Arts Degree in Child Development, Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio

- Exchange Student Great Lakes College-Latin American Program, Bogotá, Colombia

- Certified Family Life Educator (CFLE)

- Certified Texas Elementary Educator (K-8)

- Certified True Colors Facilitator

- Certified Parent Educator